Date- 14/04/2026

On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, a commemorative program was organized at Anekant Education College of Pharmacy, Baramati to honor his immense contributions to Indian society, Constitution-making, and social justice.

The program commenced at 09:30 AM in the Ground Floor Lobby with floral tribute and garlanding of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's portrait by staff and students. The ceremony reflected respect and gratitude towards the architect of the Indian Constitution.

Following the tribute, students delivered speeches highlighting Dr. Ambedkar's life journey, his struggles against social discrimination, and his relentless efforts for equality, education, and empowerment of marginalized communities.

A Guest Lecture was delivered by Prof. Dr. Nitish Sawant on the topic "Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar: His Life and Social Work." The session was conducted at Jeevraj Hall, T.C. College Campus at 10:00 AM.

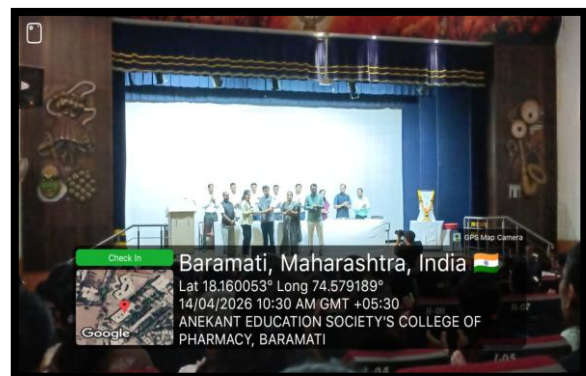

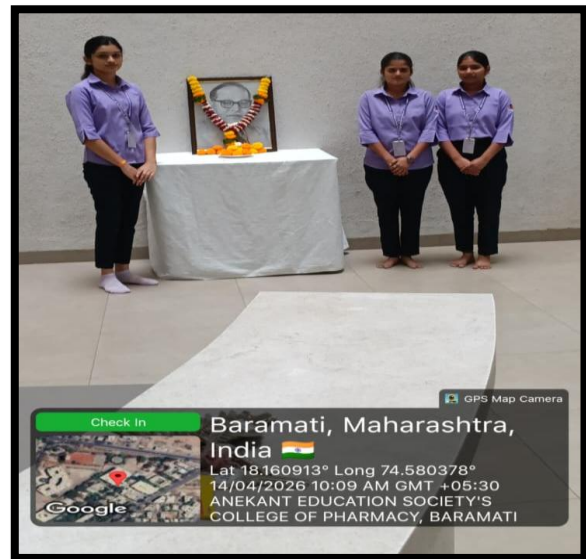

The speaker elaborated on the life, struggles, and remarkable contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, emphasizing his role in shaping modern India through his visionary leadership and commitment to social justice. The lecture highlighted Dr. Ambedkar's efforts toward the upliftment of marginalized communities, the importance of education, and the principles of equality and human rights enshrined in the Constitution.

The session was highly informative and thought-provoking, providing deep insights into Dr. Ambedkar's vision of a just and equitable society. It also inspired students to uphold constitutional values and adopt ethical practices in their personal and professional lives.

D. Pharm and B. Pharm students of our institute actively participated in the Essay Writing Competition organized by Maharashtra State Board of Technical Education and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Technological University and successfully submitted their entries through the respective Google Form links.

FAREWELL PROGRAM - 2026

Date- 17/04/2026

A farewell ceremony for the D.Pharm (2024–2026) batch students of Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati, was celebrated with warmth and enthusiasm on 17 April 2026.

Under the guidance of the institution's President, Mr. Jawahar Shah Wagholikar, and Secretary, Mr. Milind Shah Wagholikar, the farewell ceremony was organized for the very first D.Pharm batch of the newly established College of Pharmacy, which commenced in the academic year 2024–25.

The program was chaired by the institution's Treasurer, Mr. Vikas Shah (Lengarekar). The chief guest for the occasion was Abhinandan Shah. Other distinguished guests included Gaurav Bankar and Vikram Mane, who attended the event and guided the students with valuable insights.

The program began with a welcome speech, followed by the felicitation of the dignitaries. Dr. Darshan Shah delivered the introductory speech and presented the outline of the event. During the ceremony, the outgoing second-year D.Pharm students expressed their thoughts and shared their experiences. In the faculty address, Dr. Sonali Zhargad conveyed her best wishes to the students for their future endeavors.

In their speeches, the guests provided career guidance and emphasized the importance of hard work, honesty, and consistency in achieving success. In the presidential address, Mr. Vikas Shah extended his heartfelt wishes for the bright future of the students. On this occasion, prizes and mementos were distributed to the outgoing students at the hands of the dignitaries.

In the afternoon session, an entertainment program was organized for the second-year D.Pharm students. The students presented various cultural performances and expressed their gratitude to the teachers by presenting gifts as a token of love and respect.

At the end of the program, Ms. Pranjali Kharmate delivered the vote of thanks. The entire event was conducted in an enthusiastic and joyful atmosphere. The program was successfully organized under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. Darshan Shah, with the dedicated efforts of all teaching staff, non-teaching staff, and students.

BASWESHWAR MAHARAJ JAYANTI

DATE- 19/04/2026

Basweshwar Maharaj Jayanti is an annual celebration that commemorates the birth anniversary of Basaveshwara, also known as Basavanna or Basweshwar Maharaj, a 12th-century philosopher, statesman, poet, and social reformer from Karnataka, India. He is revered as a spiritual leader and is the founding saint of the Lingayat sect.

It is a great honor to welcome everyone to the celebration of Basavanna Jayanti. Today, we gather to pay tribute to one of India's most respected social reformers and spiritual leaders, whose life and teachings continue to inspire generations.

As the official Jayanti day falls on a holiday, this program has been preponed and organized on 18/04/2026 to mark the occasion with the same devotion, respect, and enthusiasm.

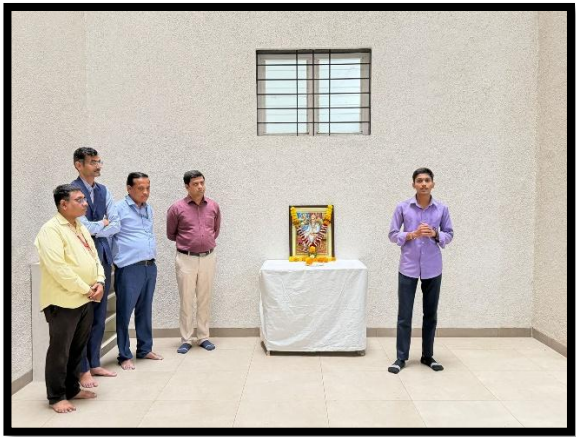

Basavanna stood for equality, rational thinking, and social justice. He emphasized the dignity of labour, the importance of selfless service, and the right of every individual to participate in spiritual and social life, irrespective of caste, gender, or social status. His establishment of the Anubhava Mantapa Anubhava Mantapa was a revolutionary step towards open and democratic dialogue, far ahead of its time.

As part of today's program, we have:

- A floral tribute ceremony to honour his legacy
- Reflections and speeches on his teachings and contributions

Let us not only celebrate his birth anniversary but also carry forward his message of inclusiveness, truth, equality, and service in our everyday lives.
