

Anekant Education Society's
College of Pharmacy,
Baramati.

PHARMAKINE
NEWS LETTER
2024-2025
(August)

LIST OF ACTIVITY

August 2025

ACTIVITY NO.	NAME OF ACTIVITY	DATE
1	SHAHIR ANNABHAU SATHE JAYANTI LOKMANYA TILAK PUNYATITHI	01/08/2025
2	KRANTISINH NANA PATIL JAYANTI	04/08/2025
3	DR. RANGANATHAN JAYANTI (FATHER OF LIBRARY IN INDIA)	12/08/2025
4	ANTIRAGGING ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION	12/08/2025
5	PUNYSHLOK AHILYABAI HOLKAR PUNYTITHI	13/08/2025
6	VIDEO PRESENTATION ON VIBHAJAN EK VIBHASHIK DIN BY MSBTE	14/08/2025
7	INDEPENDENCE DAY OF INDIA	15/08/2025
8	GUEST LECTURE ON ANTIRAGGING AWARENESS	16/08/2025
9	KRANTIKARI RAJGURU JAYANTI	25/08/2025

SHAHIR ANNABHAU SATHE JAYANTI LOKMANYA TILAK PUNYATITHI

Date- 01 August 2025

On the solemn occasion of Lokmanya Tilak Punyatithi and Shahir Annabhau Sathe Jayanti held on 01st August 2025 at 11:00 AM in the Ground Floor Lobby of AESCOP, we gathered to pay heartfelt tribute to one of greatest patriots and visionaries. Through this memorial program, our objective was not only to honor his sacrifice and contribution to India's freedom movement but also to instill in our students the values of nationalism, courage, and social responsibility that strongly stood for.

Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak, one of India's foremost freedom fighters, social reformers, and nationalist leaders, passed away on 1st August 1920. His death anniversary, observed as Punyatithi, is commemorated every year to pay tribute to his immense contribution to India's independence struggle.

Shahir Annabhau Sathe Jayanti is celebrated on 1st August every year to commemorate the birth anniversary of Annabhau Sathe (1 August 1920 – 18 July 1969), a renowned social reformer, folk poet, novelist, and Dalit activist from Maharashtra. He was a powerful voice for the oppressed and is regarded as a pioneer of Dalit literature and Lokshahir (people's poet) tradition.

The event included enlightening speeches, inspiring quotes and active participation from faculty and students alike. It was indeed a meaningful moment of reflection and remembrance.

Highlights of the event included:

- A warm welcome speech was delivered by the Program Coordinator, setting the tone for the event and highlighting its significance.
- Inspirational Speech on the life, reforms, and contributions of these legends to the society.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EVENT

KRANTISINH NANA PATIL JAYANTI

Date- 04 August 2025

Kranti Sinh Nana Patil Jayanti is celebrated on 3rd August to honour the birth anniversary of Nana Patil, a prominent freedom fighter and social reformer from Sangli, Maharashtra. Born in 1900, he is renowned for leading the Prati Sarkar (Parallel Government) during the Quit India Movement, which governed over 1,400 villages in the Satara district from 1943 to 1946. A strong advocate of farmers' rights, caste equality, and grassroots governance, he also became the first MP to speak in Marathi in the Indian Parliament. He played a key role in India's freedom struggle by establishing the Prati Sarkar—a parallel government that operated in over 1,400 villages during British rule.

On the occasion of Krantisinh Nana Patil Jayanti, celebrated on 03 August 2025 at 11:00 am in the Ground Floor Lobby of AESCOP, we gathered to pay tribute to one of India's most courageous and visionary freedom fighters. The programme aimed to honour Krantisinh Nana Patil's remarkable contributions to the freedom movement, particularly his leadership in establishing the Prati Sarkar (Parallel Government) during the Quit India Movement.

Highlights of the event included:

- A warm welcome speech was delivered by the Program Coordinator, setting the tone for the event and highlighting its significance.
- Inspirational Speech on the life, reforms, and contributions of Krantisinh Nana Patil to the society.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF SEMINAR

DR. RANGANATHAN JAYANTI
(FATHER OF LIBRARY IN INDIA)

Date- 12 August 2025

On 12th August 2025, Dr. S.R. Ranganathan Jayanti was observed at Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati to honor the Father of Library Science in India. Dr. Ranganathan (1892–1972) made remarkable contributions to the field of library science by formulating the Five Laws of Library Science (Books are for use, Every reader his/her book, Every book its reader, Save the time of the reader, The library is a growing organism), introducing the Colon Classification System, and promoting library education and the public library movement in India. He served as the first librarian of the University of Madras, later as Professor at Banaras Hindu University and the University of Delhi, and played a key role in establishing the Indian Library Association and Documentation Research and Training Centre (DRTC), Bangalore.

On this occasion, faculty and students remembered his legacy, discussed the importance of libraries in education and research, and resolved to make effective use of library resources for academic and personal growth.

The program concluded with a collective pledge to utilize the library resources and personality development book distribution to the students effectively for research, innovation, and holistic learning.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF PROGRAM

ANTIRAGGING ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

Date- 12 August 2025

As a part of the observance of Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August 2025, an Essay Writing Competition was organized by Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati on 12th August 2025. The theme of the competition was "Ragging: A Menace to Educational Institutions and the Role of Students in Eradicating it."

The program began with a brief introduction by the faculty coordinator, highlighting the objective of the event — to spread awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and to encourage students to actively participate in creating a safe, respectful, and inclusive academic environment. A total of 17 students participated enthusiastically and expressed their views through essays.

The essays focused on the psychological, academic, and social impact of ragging, the responsibility of students in reporting and preventing such practices, and the importance of unity in building a ragging-free campus. Many participants emphasized that ragging not only violates human dignity but also hampers the learning atmosphere of educational institutions.

The entries were evaluated by a panel of faculty members based on content, originality, clarity of thought, and presentation. The winners were announced and appreciated for their insightful contributions.

The activity successfully conveyed the message that ragging is a punishable offense and that every student has a role to play in eradicating it.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF COMPETITION

PUNYSHLOK AHILYABAI HOLKAR PUNYTITHI

Date-13 August 2025

Ahilyabai Holkar (1725 – 1795), the revered queen of the Malwa kingdom, is remembered as one of the most just, wise, and generous rulers in Indian history. Born in Chondi, Ahmednagar district, Maharashtra, she rose to power after the death of her husband and father-in-law, leading her kingdom with exceptional administrative skills, compassion, and dedication to public welfare.

On 13 August 2025 at 04.00 am in the Ground Floor Lobby, AESCOP to pay homage to the revered queen of Malwa, known for her exemplary governance, social reforms, and dedication to public welfare.

The program highlighted her immense contribution towards women's empowerment, infrastructure development, and preservation of cultural heritage. Faculty members, students, and staff participated in the tribute with deep respect, reflecting on her values of justice, compassion, and service to humanity.

This observance served as an inspiration for all present to imbibe her ideals in personal and professional life, reinforcing the importance of ethical leadership and community service.

Highlights of the event included:

- A warm welcome speech was delivered by the Program Coordinator, setting the tone for the event and highlighting its significance.
- Inspirational Speech on the life, reforms, and contributions of ahilyabai Holkar to the society.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EVENT

VIDEO PRESENTATION ON VIBHAJAN EK VIBHASHIK DIN

Date- 14 August 2025

In accordance with the communication received from the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Directorate of MSBTE, 14th August 2025 shall be recognised as 'Vibhaajan Ek Vibhashik Din. On this basis Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati organised to memorialize the largest mass displacement in India's history during the partition of 1947, in which millions of Indians were uprooted, countless lives were lost, and crores of people had to leave behind their homes and livelihood.

The execution aimed to make students aware of the sacrifices, pain, and hardships endured during the partition and to sensitize them towards the importance of unity and peace. In line with the directives, the National School of Drama's (NSD) special play based on the events of the partition was made available to students and staff through the official college website by uploading and circulating the English and Hindi links provided in the UGC communication.

Students and faculty were encouraged to view the play and reflect upon the sufferings of the people during that tragic period. Additionally, awareness programs and exhibitions highlighting the historical significance of the partition were organized in the college premises.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EVENT

INDEPENDENCE DAY OF INDIA

Date- 15 August 2025

Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati celebrated the Independence Day of India with great enthusiasm and patriotic spirit on 15th August 2025 at the TC College Ground, where the program began at 8.00 am with the hoisting of the National Flag by Shri Jawahar Shah Waghlikar, President of Anekant Education Society, Baramati, followed by the singing of the National Anthem that created a sense of pride and unity among all present.

The event was attended by trustees, dignitaries, principals of various institutions under Anekant Education Society, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students in large numbers.

On this occasion, Dr. Darshan Shah, Principal, Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati conveyed his wishes and emphasized the importance of independence, discipline, and responsibility in shaping the future of the nation.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks and the distribution of sweets, leaving the audience with a deep sense of patriotism and commitment towards the progress of the country.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EVENT

GUEST LECTURE ON ANTIRAGGING AWARENESS

Date- 16 August 2025

On the occasion of Anti-Ragging Week (August 12–18, 2025), Anekant Education Society's College of Pharmacy, Baramati organized a special guest lecture on “Anti-Ragging Awareness” on 16th August 2025. The session was conducted by Mrs. Vanita Kadam, Representative of Shakti Pathak, who sensitized the students about the legal provisions, institutional measures, and consequences of ragging, while emphasizing the need to uphold a safe, disciplined, and respectful campus environment. The event was further enriched by the presence of Police Constable Santosh Virkar and Police Constable Dhanaji Vanave, Police Constable Mrs. Pranali Bhosale who shared real-life experiences and highlighted the seriousness of ragging as a punishable offense.

As part of the execution, an Anti-Ragging Essay Competition was held on 12th August 2025, and the prize distribution took place during the program—Ms. Anushree Shinde (D. Pharm) secured First Prize, Ms. Vaishnavi Deokate (B. Pharm) won Second Prize, and Mr. Vishwa Dhoka (D. Pharm) received Third Prize for their insightful essays.

To encourage active participation and create lasting memories, a selfie frame was arranged for students and faculty members to capture photographs symbolizing their support for a ragging-free campus.

All Diploma in Pharmacy students actively participated in the lecture, engaged in meaningful discussions, and pledged their commitment towards building a safe, healthy, and respectful learning environment.

The program concluded with words of encouragement from the faculty, successfully reinforcing the message of zero tolerance towards ragging.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EVENT

KRANTIKARI RAJGURU JAYANTI

Date- 24 August 2025

Kranti Veer Shivram Hari Rajguru (24 August 1908 – 23 March 1931) was one of India's most valiant freedom fighters who sacrificed his life at a young age for the country's independence. Born in Khed, near Pune (now renamed as Rajgurunagar in his honor), Rajguru was deeply influenced by the revolutionary ideas of Bal Gangadhar Tilak and other nationalists. From an early age, he displayed a spirit of patriotism and courage, dedicating himself to the struggle against British rule.

On the occasion of Kranti Veer Rajguru Jayanti, we have assembled here today to pay homage to the great revolutionary Shaheed Shivram Hari Rajguru, whose life was a true symbol of courage and sacrifice for our nation's freedom. Though his birth anniversary fell on Sunday, 24th August 2025, due to the holiday it has been arranged on Monday, 25th August 2025, so that all students and faculty could come together to honor his legacy collectively.

Rajguru, at a very young age, chose the difficult path of revolution, standing shoulder to shoulder with Bhagat Singh and Sukhdev. His supreme sacrifice continues to inspire generations to live with patriotism, fearlessness, and dedication towards the nation.

By remembering this day, we not only remember his invaluable contribution but also remind ourselves of our responsibility to uphold the values of justice, unity, and integrity in our personal and professional lives. May his memory guide us to contribute positively to society and keep the spirit of freedom alive forever.

Highlights of the event included:

- A warm welcome speech was delivered by the Program Coordinator, setting the tone for the event and highlighting its significance.
- Inspirational Speech on the life, reforms, and contributions of Krantiveer Rajguru to the society.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EVENT

